

Research software management

Studies (in french) on the dissemination of software produced in research labs and institutions, initiated and motivated by the experience on LIGM software management

■ ■ Patrimoine logiciel d'un laboratoire - <https://www.projet-plume.org/patrimoine-logiciel-laboratoire>

PLUME and the promotion of research software : studies for software dissemination and management

- Laboratory guide for software development survey
- Dissemination of research software: legal and administrative recommendations
- Article vs. Software: issues on legal aspects and scientific policies
- License & copyright for labs' free software developments
- Reasons to reference your own software in a PLUME reference card
- and others ...

Keyword search in PLUME (in french): licence-juridique, référencement, valorisation, ...

Article vs Software: compare to understand

- legal aspects: intellectual property and licenses
- scientific policies: evaluation, validation, free/open access, ...

Survey procedure

- work in contact with technology transfert services
- notify the software to the lab's director
- identify the software reference (PLUME reference card)
- notify to lab's head institutions (copyright information)
- disseminate the software

Procedure for software dissemination: legal and administrative recommendations

- choose a name
- establish the author's list
- establish its originality
- establish the list of software components and their licenses
- ...
- disseminate the software

Contact: Teresa.Gomez-Diaz@univ-mlv.fr